Waiting on Blessings Discussion Questions

Haggai 2:15-19

1. What makes it hard to obey?
2. Take a moment to consider your life. Share a few of the main things you are going through. Are they good or bad? Is God trying to get your attention?
3. Share a time in our life where you just focused on yourself and your life fell apart. What caused this to happen?
4. What kind of problems do we face when we are chasing the wrong things in life?
5. Can wrong things be good things or do they always have to be bad things? Is there a wrong thing you are pursuing that you need to stop?
6. Have you ever felt like you were working harder and harder and falling further and further behind? What gets you through these times or makes you realize you need to turn to God?
7. Share how far you have come in your spiritual walk since becoming a Christ follower.
8. Why is disobedience really a heart issue?
9. When you are going through hard times, how do you become a more faithful follower of God instead of faithless?
10. Why does blessing seem to take forever getting here? Why isn't it just automatic?
11. Why is it important to take it one right step at a time?
12. Why do we still face consequences even after we repent and obey Christ? Why doesn't God remove them from our life?
13. What benefit can come from going through the consequences?
14. Have you ever tested God with your giving? What were the results?
15. How do we bless others with the blessings we receive?
