

Wisdom for the Family Discussion Questions

Proverbs 4:1-7

1. What does “rejoice in your wife” mean to you?
2. What does valuing someone look and sound like?
3. Why is it important to pursue purity and faithfulness? What happens when you don’t? What is your biggest threat to your purity?
4. What type of character should we strive to have that will help instead of hinder our relationships?
5. What does “bring good to your husband” look like to you?
6. What does it mean to revere God? How does revering God affect our other relationships?
7. How are we to provide instruction to our children?
8. How do you define discipline? What is the Bible’s definition of discipline? Are they both definitions the same or different?
9. Give an example of a correct way of disciplining? Give an example of an incorrect way of disciplining?
10. How can you make a difference in the lives of the next generation?
11. What type of legacy are you leaving behind? What type of legacy do you want to leave behind? What can you do to improve the legacy you are leaving behind?
12. How do we grow in wisdom?
13. Is it only important for young people to choose their friends wisely? Why or why not?
14. What impact are your friends having on your life? Is there someone who should not be one of your friends?
15. Why is it important for all of us to listen to instruction from godly, Bible following people?
16. What does respecting at 15 years old? Does this look different at an older age, say 45? If so how?
17. What are ways we can stand up for the pre-born children?

18. Why is it important for Edgewood to stay Biblically sound on all topics?
19. How can we be incensed about evil, but show love to the people doing the evil?
20. Since Jesus Christ is our model to follow, what are some of His traits we should have?
21. How can we offer hope and healing to those who have had an abortion?
22. How can we stand up for the right of those who are wronged?
23. Why does a society have to dehumanize a class of people they want to mistreat?
24. How does God hold us accountable for the things we don't do that we should be doing?
25. What is your response to this week's sermon?