

A Community in Unity
Acts 4:32-37
November 30-December 1

1. How did you do at being bold and not folding this past week? Share with the group your successes and failures.
2. What does it mean to be of one heart and one soul?
3. What would it take for Edgewood to be known as people of one heart and one soul?
4. Are you in “one accord” with everyone right now? If not, what can you do to make this right?
5. Have you ever shared something with someone in the past? How did that go? What were the benefits of sharing and what were the negatives?
6. When was the last time you shared your testimony of what God has done for you and is doing in your life? How did that experience go?
7. What does it look like to have “great” power and to experience “great” grace when sharing the gospel?
8. What do you think would change if you truly believed that what you have is not really yours?
9. Why do you think Joseph (Barnabas) was the only one mentioned by name that sold some land and gave it to the apostles?
10. Of the seven descriptors used to characterize Barnabas, which one most describes you? Which one do you need to give more attention to?
11. What one thing can you do this week to exhibit oneness?
12. How can you extend yourself by giving a possession to help another person?
13. Who will you encourage this week? How will you do it?
