

Dealing with Prejudice Discussion Questions

Acts 10:1-33

Rev. Brian Bill

October 10-11, 2020

1. Read Acts 10:1-2. Do you know someone who could be describe like Cornelius in verse two that is not saved? What kind of things do they do? How did you conclude they are not saved? What can you do to reach out to this person with the gospel?
2. What kind of response do you have when you feel God is calling you? Do you say “What is it, Lord? Here am I!” or “By no means, Lord.”
3. How are our prayers and giving like a sweet incense to God? What does this mean?
4. Why was it important for Peter to be the one to explain the Gospel to Cornelius?
5. What did Peter learn from his vision? Why did he have to learn this lesson?
6. Have you ever learned that something you have believed your whole life to be false? What did this do to you? How did your thinking and actions change because of this? Did it happen quickly or slowly over time?
7. What process has God taken you through to change some of your attitude issues? Is there an attitude issue God is currently dealing with you about? Explain.
8. How easy is it for you to obey God when you don’t understand something? Why do we obey Him anyway?
9. What are some characteristics of new Christians? What are they excited about and do?
10. Do mature Christians have this same excitement? Why or why not?
11. How can new Christians and mature Christians help each other to reach others with the gospel?
12. What is something that you are treating as an idol in your life that is getting worshiped instead of God? How are you going to change it and make sure you are worshipping God alone?
13. What prejudices is God revealing to you that you have in your life that needs to change?
14. What spiritual disciplines do you have in your daily life for God to use?
15. Why is God gracious to us even when we mess up?
16. How are you ministering to your family and friends?
17. Is there something in your life that you need to surrender to His sovereignty? How is this holding you back?
18. What can you do while you are waiting on God’s timing?
