

Missionaries on Mission Discussion Questions

Acts 13:1-12

Rev. Dan Cullett

November 21-22, 2020

1. What is a dream you have for your life?
2. Read Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 1:8. How do these two sets of verses go together?
3. If persecution is viewed like pressing grapes until the juice comes out, what is God trying to accomplish with us through persecution?
4. Why is it important that the church is made up of ordinary people?
5. Why is it beneficial for the church to be made up of people from different areas, with different backgrounds, and ethnicities?
6. How have you seen the church in action recently?
7. Have you ever fasted before? If so, how did it make you feel and what did you learn from the experience?
8. Pick one of our missionaries and spend time praying for them (see back of page).
9. What is a common fear people have if they feel they are being called to missions? How does God overcome this fear?
10. How does God speak to us through His Word?
11. What is your mission field and what are you doing to proclaim Jesus to that field?
12. How does know that people need the life transforming power of the gospel give you boldness to share the gospel?
13. Why should we expect opposition when we share the gospel? What should our response be to this opposition?
14. What actions steps are you taking today?
