

So the Next Generation Will Know Note Answers

Rev. Kyle Parks

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

May 1-2, 2021

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

1. Is the _____ (hear)
2. Often recited with Deuteronomy 11:13-21 and Numbers 15:27-41 as a morning and evening _____.

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one (vs. 4)

1. _____ for God's people.
2. He was to be the _____ object of Israel's faith and obedience.
3. Israel was not to forget Yahweh or attempt to share its _____ with other gods in days of prosperity.
4. Israel was to ensure continuity of this allegiance and this covenant faith by diligently teaching their _____.

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. (vs. 5)

1. A positive way to describe the negative commands of the first two commandments of the ten.
2. Not just a legalistic command, but about a _____ based on love.
 - God is _____ (1 John 4).
3. Described by Jesus as the first and _____ commandment (Matthew 22:36-38, Mark 12:29-34, and Luke 10:27-28).
4. The extent of a man's love for God was to be _____.
5. This expression is a favorite one in Deuteronomy (4:29, 10:12, 11:13, 13:3, 26:16, 30:2, 6:10).
6. The heart was regarded as the seat of the _____ and will as well as of a wide range of emotions.
7. The term soul seems to refer to the source of _____ and vitality.
8. A man is to love God with unreserved _____.
9. Who/what do you love?

And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart (vs. 6)

1. _____ is the most important aspect of teaching the next generation the truth of God's Word.
 - Are you giving a picture of what it means to love God and follow Him?
2. Godly _____ – be authentic and real
 - Do you practice what you preach?

3. _____ – stories of Scripture, moral laws of God, the way of salvation, teachings of Jesus, how to follow Him and help others to follow Him, etc.
 - Should be on ongoing topic of conversation in the home.
 - The command to teach the family the laws of God was repeated multiple times throughout the book of Deuteronomy and throughout Scripture.
4. Obey God's commands not just because He said so, but because it is for our _____ always, our preservation, and it will be righteousness for us.
5. When Jesus came, he fulfilled the law, and gave His righteousness to all those who _____ in His name.

You shall bind them as a sign on your hand and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.
You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates (vs 8-9).

1. Jews took this literally and placed small scrolls, with the Shema on them, into leather cubes called phylacteries that could be worn on the _____.
2. Also placed in containers that would be fastened to doorposts of the house and/or gates.
3. For today, the _____ must always be before us.
 - _____ posted in your house or places you will often see.
 - _____ Scripture.
 - Why is being inundated with the Word such a big deal?
 - History of Israel's _____ to pass on God's laws and commands.
 - The church today is on the brink of doing the same.
4. First generation to say that their _____ group is just as important to their sense of self as family.
5. Pornography issue today.
 - Porn gives unrealistic expectations of _____ and sex.
 - Porn addiction can actually _____ your brain.
 - We think it isn't affecting anyone but us, but studies show when we view porn, we are increasing the demand for _____ and sex trafficking.
 - Psalm 11:9,11 - must constantly be on our _____ and hearts or we will stray.
6. Ultimately, who is your God?
7. Are you making disciples?
8. _____ in the next generation (Psalm 48:12-14, 78:5-7).