

Going With God

Everyday God wants us to travel the path of life with Him – whether it is an easy road or not. In Peter’s epistles, his theme is that God wants to help us through our trials. In the book of Exodus, Moses shows how God brought His people from slavery to freedom. Though we would prefer to not have difficulties in life, God never promises us this path. He does, however, promise to give us the necessary resources to be free to walk any righteous path with the help of His grace.
