April 2023 – Letters to the Church

The Pauline epistles, or letters of Paul, are the New Testament books written to churches or individuals after the resurrection of Jesus and during the Apostle Paul's ministry. Paul's letters to the churches in particular give much needed encouragement, direction, and hope as well as healthy measures for church discipline. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, Paul famously writes on our resurrection hope, the fruit of the Spirit, salvation by grace through faith, and the supremacy of Jesus Christ. This same Jesus, our Savior and Lord, is also the Creator and Sustainer of all things and will one day return in glorious fashion for His people.

Application Questions

Is there a...

Sin to confess? Promise to claim? Example to follow? Command to obey? Stumbling block to avoid?

Bible Memorization

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.

Galatians 5:22-23
